TAKE HOME MESSAGE

WHY?

1. Place a special focus on the social dimension in the path for migrant integration and supplementary to basic reception services.
2. Lead-Mentor Coordinator/s hired staff to guide the group of volunteers and liaison between Third Country Nationals and reception services and migration specialists
3. Preserving a range of activities that span from citizenship to Familiarising-with-the-Place, and from language communication to social activities
4. Foster mutual interaction between the group of Mentors and TCNs
5. Implement the Orientation and Action Phase Involving the Local Community as the process that leads towards the Joint Community Action

6. L-Ms and Ms as active actors in the process of analysis, design and implementation of joint community actions, focusing on networking and cooperation to ensure participation and future funding.
7. Assessment of learning outcomes, provide and assess the skills transferred to LM and Ms (add more)
8. Utilise the DREAMM approach and toolkits with flexibility and adaptability without compromising the DREAMM pillars and domains (WP5...)
